With reference to the letter dated September 17,1932, from the Netherlands Consulate-General on the subject of two Russians named B.M.Fedorenko and A.P.Fedorischeff,particulars on record regarding these individuals are as follows:-

1). Boris Mitrofanovitch Fedorenko,born April 2,1909,at Omsk,Siberia. He arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostok in December 1922 in company with the Omsk Military Cadet School contingent and later became a professional musician(drummer). In this capacity he has been working continually in both Shanghai and Hankow. He is at present in the latter port.

2). Alexander Petrovitch Fedorischeff,born August 14,1900, at Blagoveschensk,Siberia. In 1920 he fled from the U.S.S.R. to Harbin. Here he resided for about eighteen months after which he proceeded to Japan where he stayed until September 1927,when he proceeded to Shanghai. He is a musician (saxophonist) by profession and was employed at the Premier Cafe in Shanghai for some time, after which he left for Hankow where he is at present employed with the International Cafe.
